WHY CHOOSE TUFFY SECURITY PRODUCTS?

Tuffy products are built for police, government agencies, and first responders because they deliver dependable, duty-ready security where it matters most: inside the vehicle.

With welded steel construction, pry-resistant locking systems, and vehicle-specific fitment, Tuffy lock boxes, drawers, and console safes help secure firearms, sensitive equipment, tools, and mission-critical gear without compromising space or accessibility.

Whether used in patrol vehicles, fleet trucks, administrative units, or emergency response rigs, Tuffy gives professionals the confidence that their equipment stays protected, organized, and ready when they need it.

OUTFITTING WITH TUFFY

Outfitting police, government, and first responder vehicles demands more than aftermarket accessories; it requires storage and security solutions engineered for the realities of the job. Tuffy Security Products has spent years refining gear drawers, under-seat lockboxes, and modular storage systems specifically for the fleets that can't afford compromise. Every product is designed with the outfitter in mind: rugged, weapon- and gear-ready, purpose-built for platforms like the Ford Police Interceptor Utility, Chevrolet Tahoe PPV, and Ford F-150 Police Responder, and engineered to integrate cleanly into existing build specs without reinventing the wheel on every order.

That's what makes the process seamless, from first inquiry to final installation. Chris Kemp serves as your dedicated point of contact throughout, working directly with outfitters to match the right Tuffy solution to each vehicle's mission profile, timeline, and budget. Whether you're spec'ing a single unit or scaling across a fleet, Chris brings the product knowledge and responsiveness to keep your build on schedule and your team confident it'll come together exactly as expected. With Tuffy, you're not just adding storage. You're partnering with a team that understands what "mission-ready" actually means.

BUILD OUT YOUR FLEET, NATIONWIDE

TUFFY can connect you with trusted upfitters across the U.S. to equip your fleet with secure storage solutions built for the job. From planning and product selection to installation, we'll help simplify the process and deliver a consistent solution across every vehicle in your fleet.
